

SWISS-GROUP - NEWSLETTER APRIL 2019

Here is the latest news from Swiss-Group and its activities in the field.

First of all, we are very happy to announce that Swiss-Group has been recognised as public utility by the Geneva Canton. Henceforth, donors have the right to deduct their donations in their tax return.

All certificates have been sent for the year 2018.

Currently the association has 200 donors who allow us to support 62 orphans in Gazientep, in Turkey, and several dozen families, both in Gazientep and in Syria.

This year, winter conditions have been very harsh in this area which has been weathered. Your answers to our donation calls have helped equip and support many refugees in need.

Our actions in the field

- - Fuel distribution in Syria
- 53 families each received 165 liters

- - Distribution of winter clothes for children
- Over 75 families have benefited of it

- - Distribution of charcoal + kindling
- Received by 216 refugee families in Turkey

- - All the water heaters ordered in December for fifteen families have been paid for and installed.

Children's News

Thanks to your donations and sponsorships

Khairiya (17), severely disabled, receives regular physiotherapy treatment which now allows her to walk and hold a pencil for drawing.

Naima and her sister Barra, two little girls of 3 and 2 years old suffering from an autoimmune skin disease. They can continue to receive the necessary constant care which is provided by an extraordinary nurse.

Ismaël, severely burned on the face and part of the body, underwent a first reconstructive surgery on February 12, 2019 and two more will be necessary. Thanks to a call for donations all costs are covered.
